Agenda Item No. 3: Renewal of Countermeasures (Takeover Defense) in Response to Large-scale Purchase of Enplas Shares, Etc.

The Company has decided to renew the “Countermeasures (Takeover Defense) in Response to Large-scale Purchases of Enplas Shares, Etc.” at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company held on April 27, 2018 (The countermeasures renewed as above are hereinafter called the “New Plan.”). The Company would like the shareholders to approve the New Plan.

The New Plan has been approved by all of the directors, including external directors who are audit and supervisory committee members, of the Company at the said meeting of the Board of Director.

1. Purpose of Introducing New Plan

The purpose of introducing the New Plan is to achieve maintenance and improvement of Return on Equity Ratio (ROE) of the Company, and to much more protect and enhance the Company’s corporate value and common interests of the shareholders.

The Board of Directors of the Company believes, as set out in the basic policy with regard to person who controls decisions over company’s financial and business policies, that any person who makes a proposal for an inappropriate Large-scale Purchase or commits any similar actions thereto, which may significantly damage the Company’s corporate value and common interests of the shareholders, is inappropriate as a person who controls decisions over the Company’s financial and business policies. In particular, based on its growth plan in light of the mid- and long-term vision, as the Company is currently committed to the aggressive expansion of its business base, the Company believes that implementation of a proposal for a Large-scale Purchase aimed at the acquisition of short-term profits will not only make our growth plan unachievable, but also highly likely to cause material loss to our existing shareholders. In order to prevent decisions over the Company’s financial and business policies from being controlled by such inappropriate person, the New Plan will be introduced so that, if there is any proposal for a Large-scale Purchase of the shares, etc. of the Company, the shareholders have necessary and adequate information and time to judge whether or not to accept such proposal and the Board of Directors of the Company may evaluate and consider the contents of the proposal for a Large-scale Purchase with regards to whether it is likely to significantly damage the Company’s corporate value and common interests of the shareholders and provide an alternative proposal to the shareholders or negotiate with a proposer.

In such case, in triggering the countermeasures, no shareholders' meeting to confirm the shareholders' opinion (hereinafter called the "Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion") on the propriety thereof shall be required to be held.

(i-2) A case where the countermeasures are triggered upon the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion.

Notwithstanding Paragraph (i-1) above, if (a) the Special Committee recommends calling the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion or (b) it is practically possible to confirm the opinion of the shareholders by taking into consideration various conditions, such as the contents of the Large-scale Purchase and the existence of enough time to confirm matters and the Board of Directors of the Company judges that it is appropriate to confirm the opinion of the shareholders on the propriety of triggering the countermeasures in light of the laws and regulations, due care of a good manager of the directors of the Company and so on, the Board of Directors of the Company shall promptly call the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion (instead of consultation with the Special Committee in the case of above (b)) and refer the judgment on whether or not to trigger the countermeasures to the shareholders.

(ii) Cases where the Large-scale Share Purchaser complies with the Large-scale Purchase Rules.

When the Large-scale Share Purchaser complies with the Large-scale Purchase Rules, the possibility of declaring an objection, providing an alternative proposal or giving an explanation to the shareholders will not be excluded if the Board of Directors of the Company disagrees on the relevant Large-scale Purchase; however, in principle, no countermeasures will be triggered against such Large-scale Purchase. The shareholders of the Company will be asked to judge whether or not to accept the proposal of the Large-scale Purchase after taking into consideration the Information Provided by the Large-scale Share Purchaser with regard to such Large-scale Purchase and the opinion thereon, an alternative proposal and so on of the Board of Directors of the Company.

However, even if the Large-scale Share Purchaser complies with the Large-scale Purchase Rules, the Board of Directors of the Company will promptly call the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion and refer the judgment on whether or not to trigger the countermeasures to the shareholders if the Board of Directors of the Company admits that it is clear that the Large-scale Purchase significantly damages the Company's corporate value and common interests of the shareholders and judges that it is necessary and appropriate to trigger the countermeasures. In particular, each of the cases from (a) to (e) below will be deemed as a case where it is admitted that it is clear that the Large-scale Purchase significantly damages the Company's corporate value and common interests of the shareholders in principle:

- (a) if the Large-scale Share Purchaser is a person, a so-called greenmailer, who has no intention of actually participating in the management of the Company, but acquires or intends to acquire the shares, etc. of the Company solely for the purpose of boosting the share price and causing the Company or the relevant persons of the Company to purchase such shares, etc. at a high price,
- (b) if the Large-scale Share Purchaser acquires the shares, etc. of the Company for the purpose of transferring intellectual property rights, know-how, corporate secrets, key business partners or customers, etc. of the Company or any of its group companies which are necessary for its business and management to the Large-scale Share Purchaser or any of its group companies, etc. by temporarily controlling the Company's management,
- (c) if the Large-scale Share Purchaser acquires the shares, etc. of the Company for the purpose of appropriating the assets of the Company or any of its group companies for security or repayment resources for the liabilities of the Large-scale Share Purchaser or any of its group

- companies, etc. after acquiring control over the management of the Company,
- (d) if the Large-scale Share Purchaser acquires the shares, etc. of the Company for the purpose of causing a disposal of highly valued assets, such as real estate property and securities, not being currently related to the business of the Company or any of its group companies, by the sale, etc. thereof and then causing temporary high dividends to be paid with the gains of such disposal or to sell the shares, etc. of the Company at a boosted price by watching for a time of a sudden rise in the share price due to the temporary high dividends by temporarily controlling the management of the Company, or
 - (e) if the proposed purchase is a purchase which is likely to actually force the shareholders to sell the shares, etc. of the Company, such as a coercive two-tier purchase, meaning the purchase of shares, including a tender offer, in which the purchase is not offered for all shares, etc. of the Company in the first stage of the purchase, and the purchase is offered for the other shares, etc. of the Company under unfavorable conditions for the shareholders or no clear conditions in the second stage of the purchase.

(1-6) Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion

As set out in Paragraph (1-5) above, the Board of Directors of the Company shall call the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion in certain cases and refer the judgment on whether or not to trigger the countermeasures to the shareholders. In such case, the Company shall promptly disclose the fact that the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion is called and other matters for which the Board of Directors of the Company judges it is appropriate to disclose.

If the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion is to be held, the Board of Directors of the Company shall promptly set the record date to determine the shareholders entitled to vote at such Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion and make a public notice at least two (2) weeks prior to the said record date in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act. The shareholders entitled to vote at such Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion shall be those shareholders recorded in the latest shareholder registry as of the said record date. Unless otherwise provided in laws, regulations or the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, a resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion shall be passed by a majority of the votes of the shareholders present at such Meeting.

If it is resolved to trigger or not to trigger the countermeasures at the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion, the Board of Directors of the Company shall approve the resolution to trigger or not to trigger the countermeasures in accordance with the resolution passed at such Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion and disclose the result thereof.

If the Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion is called, the Large-scale

Share Purchaser may not initiate the Large-scale Purchase until the closure of such Shareholders' Meeting to Confirm the Shareholders' Opinion.

(2) Specific Contents of Countermeasures

Countermeasures to be triggered by the Board of Directors of the Company in the New Plan may include the allotment of share options (hereinafter called "Share Options") without contribution as well as other countermeasures permitted by the Companies Act or other laws or regulations or the Articles of Incorporation of the Company. For any allotment of share options without contribution, a summary thereof shall be as set out in "Summary of Allotment of Share Options without Contribution" of Exhibit 3.

(3) Discontinuance or Withdrawal of Triggered Countermeasures

Even if the Board of Directors of the Company has resolved to trigger the countermeasures, if (i) the Large-scale Share Purchaser discontinues the Large-scale Purchase, or (ii) the fact, etc. based on which the judgment on whether or not to trigger the countermeasures was made changes and there are circumstances where the Board of Directors of the Company judges that it is inappropriate to maintain the triggered countermeasures in terms of protecting and enhancing of the Company's corporate value and common interests of the shareholders, the Board of Directors of the Company shall consult with the Special Committee and consider the discontinuance or withdrawal of the triggered countermeasures by consulting with and obtaining advice from the External Professionals, as necessary.

The Special Committee, upon such consultation, shall consider the propriety of maintaining such countermeasures and make a recommendation to the Board of Directors of the Company by consulting with and obtaining advice from the External Professionals, as necessary. The Board of Directors of the Company shall respect the Special Committee's recommendation to the greatest extent possible in judging whether or not to maintain the countermeasures.

If the Board of Directors of the Company has resolved to discontinue or withdraw the triggered countermeasures based on such recommendation of the Special Committee, it shall promptly disclose a summary of such resolution and other matters that the Board of Directors of the Company judges it appropriate to disclose.

However, such allotment of the Share Options without contribution may be discontinued or withdrawn until two (2) business days prior to the expiry date of rights (hereinafter called the "Expiry Date of Rights") in respect of the Allotment Date (hereinafter as defined in Section 1 of Exhibit 3) of the Share Options if the Share Options are allotted without contribution as the countermeasures, but no allotment of the Share Options without contribution shall be discontinued or withdrawn on or after the previous business day of the Expiry Date of Rights to prevent any investors who have acquired the shares, etc. of the Company before the Expiry Date of Rights and who have sold such shares, etc. of the Company on the premise that they will be diluted by such allocation of the Share Options without contribution on or after Expiry Date of Rights from being damaged due to the allotment of the Share Options without contribution being discontinued or withdrawn.

(4) Effective Term, and Abolition and Modification of New Plan

The effective term of the New Plan expires at the closure of the 60th ordinary shareholders' meeting of the Company to be held in June 2021.

However, the New Plan shall be abolished at such time and in accordance with such resolution if it is approved to abolish the New Plan at the meeting of the shareholders or the Board of Directors of the Company even before the expiration of such effective term.

The Board of Directors of the Company may modify the New Plan to the extent reasonably admitted necessary as a result of any modification of, or any change of the interpretation or operation of, the provisions of the Companies Act, the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act or other laws or regulations or the rules of financial instruments exchanges or any change of the taxation system or precedents.

If the New Plan is abolished or modified, the Company shall appropriately disclose the fact of such abolition or modification, excluding any minor modification of wordings as a result of any revision of the laws, regulations and so on, and the contents of such modification.
